

Pinehurst Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PINEHURST, N. C., January 1.—This week has been one with few open dates upon the social calendar, its special features the first of the season's collations, a progressive bridge party, numerous dinners, saddle parties and the annual holiday week golf tournament.

Enjoyed by the entire village was the holiday week, in which the social favors and figures in keeping with the season; a pleasant surprise for the more formal social events which add brilliancy to the winter. The decorations were twin Christmas trees, strung with small red hearts, and tinsel streamers of English Ivy, entwined with holly and mistletoe, large crimson bells and four monstrous stockings, hung on the fireplace mantel. The novelties in figures included a burlesque ballet, in which young men garbed in tuxedo skirts worn over their evening suits won or lost partners by their ability to dance the Cinderella number, in which young women were claimed for partners with slippers selected from a basket, and young men by personal articles drawn from a hat, the matching of all nation flags, and jigsaw puzzle pictures, made from colored postals.

At the Pinehurst Hotel, the winter Christmas party, decorated French novelties, confections and cigarettes. The list of participants included Mr. and Mrs. F. A. King, of Northboro; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Metcalf, of Providence; Captain R. B. Parrott, of New Brunswick; and Miss Olmstead, of West Brookfield; Spencer Waters, of New York; Miss Harriet Horton, of Williamsport; J. S. Walker, of Orange, Va.; and Miss Maudie Horton, of Richmond. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Metcalf, of Providence; Mrs. H. R. Mallinson, of New York; and Charles Banes, of Overbrook. Mrs. A. J. Phelps and Mrs. J. C. McCreery, both of New York, led for the best 500 score played at a single table, Mrs. Phelps winning out.

One of the loveliest of the season's dinners was a Christmas spread given at the Inn for a party of close friends by Wilbur C. Johnson, of New York, the group including Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashley Sparks, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Johnson, of Worcester; Mr. Myron W. Marr, of Dorchester; James Hall, of New York; C. M. Brett, of Brookline. The favors were clever mechanical toys, each with a verse containing a sly poke at some personal peculiarity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hayford, of Upland Beach, entertained the younger set, including Misses Blanche Tapley, Theodore and Margaret Clough, of Lynn; Ethel Check, of New York; Charles Banes, of Overbrook, Va.; J. S. Walker, of Orange, Va.; and Miss Maudie Horton, of Richmond. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Metcalf, of Providence; Mrs. H. R. Mallinson, of New York; and Charles Banes, of Overbrook. Mrs. A. J. Phelps and Mrs. J. C. McCreery, both of New York, led for the best 500 score played at a single table, Mrs. Phelps winning out.

Some people swell up on "emotion" brewed from absolute untruth. It's an old trick of the leaders of the Labor Trust to twist facts and make the "sympathetic ones" weep at the ice house. (That's part of the tale further on.)

Gompers et al. sneer at, spit upon and defy our courts, seeking sympathy by falsely telling the people the courts were trying to deprive them of free speech and free press.

Men can speak freely and print opinions freely in this country and no court will object, but they cannot be allowed to print matter as part of a criminal conspiracy to injure and ruin other citizens.

Gompers and his trust associates started out to ruin the Bucks Stove Co., drive its hundreds of workmen out of work and destroy the value of the plant without regard to the fact that hard-earned money of men who worked had been invested there.

The conspirators were told by the courts to stop these vicious "trust" methods (efforts to break the firm that won't come under trust rule), but instead of stopping they "dare" the courts to punish them, and demand new laws to protect them in such destructive and tyrannical acts as they may desire to do.

The reason Gompers and his band persisted in trying to ruin the Bucks Stove Works was because the statute which gave them the right to keep some old employees at work when "de union" ordered them discharged and some of "de gang" put in.

Now, let us reverse the conditions and have a look. Suppose the company had ordered the union to dismiss certain men from their union, and the demand being refused, should institute a boycott against that union, publish its name in an "unfair list," instruct other manufacturers all over the United States not to buy the labor of that union, have committed call at stores and threaten to boycott if the merchants sold anything made by that union. Picket the factories where members work and slug them on the way home, blow up their houses and wreck the works, and even murder a few members of the union, and then demand that the courts should give the order to let the "unfair" list be kept, and the courts would order the company to cease boycotting and trying to ruin these union men. Suppose thereupon the company should sue the court and in open defiance continue the "unfair" list in a persistent, carefully laid out plan, purposely intended to ruin the union and force its members into poverty. What a howl would go up from the union demanding that the courts protect them and punish their law-breaking oppressors. Then they would praise the courts and go on earning a living protected from ruin and happy in the knowledge that the people's courts could defend them.

How could any of us receive protection from law-breakers unless the courts have power to do and punish such men. The court is placed in position where it must do one thing or the other—punish men who persist in defying its peace orders or go out of service, let anarchy reign and the more powerful destroy the weaker.

It is reasonable to expect the courts to defend their defenders, whereas thieves, forgers, burglars, crooks of all kinds and violent members of labor unions hate them and threaten violence if their members are punished for breaking the law. They want the courts to let them go free, and at the same time demand punishment for other men "outside de union" when they break the law. Notice the above reference is to "violent" members of labor unions. The great majority of the "unfair" union men are peaceable, upright citizens. The noisy, violent ones get into office, and the leaders of the great Labor

How to Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way, and It Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know its misery. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-five years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 774 Walton Street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

Mr. Guy Metcalf, of Providence; Mrs. H. R. Mallinson, of New York; and Charles Banes, of Overbrook. Mrs. A. J. Phelps and Mrs. J. C. McCreery, both of New York, led for the best 500 score played at a single table, Mrs. Phelps winning out.

One of the loveliest of the season's dinners was a Christmas spread given at the Inn for a party of close friends by Wilbur C. Johnson, of New York, the group including Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashley Sparks, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Johnson, of Worcester; Mr. Myron W. Marr, of Dorchester; James Hall, of New York; C. M. Brett, of Brookline. The favors were clever mechanical toys, each with a verse containing a sly poke at some personal peculiarity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hayford, of Upland Beach, entertained the younger set, including Misses Blanche Tapley, Theodore and Margaret Clough, of Lynn; Ethel Check, of New York; Charles Banes, of Overbrook, Va.; J. S. Walker, of Orange, Va.; and Miss Maudie Horton, of Richmond. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Metcalf, of Providence; Mrs. H. R. Mallinson, of New York; and Charles Banes, of Overbrook. Mrs. A. J. Phelps and Mrs. J. C. McCreery, both of New York, led for the best 500 score played at a single table, Mrs. Phelps winning out.

Some people swell up on "emotion" brewed from absolute untruth. It's an old trick of the leaders of the Labor Trust to twist facts and make the "sympathetic ones" weep at the ice house. (That's part of the tale further on.)

Gompers et al. sneer at, spit upon and defy our courts, seeking sympathy by falsely telling the people the courts were trying to deprive them of free speech and free press.

Men can speak freely and print opinions freely in this country and no court will object, but they cannot be allowed to print matter as part of a criminal conspiracy to injure and ruin other citizens.

Gompers and his trust associates started out to ruin the Bucks Stove Co., drive its hundreds of workmen out of work and destroy the value of the plant without regard to the fact that hard-earned money of men who worked had been invested there.

The conspirators were told by the courts to stop these vicious "trust" methods (efforts to break the firm that won't come under trust rule), but instead of stopping they "dare" the courts to punish them, and demand new laws to protect them in such destructive and tyrannical acts as they may desire to do.

The reason Gompers and his band persisted in trying to ruin the Bucks Stove Works was because the statute which gave them the right to keep some old employees at work when "de union" ordered them discharged and some of "de gang" put in.

Now, let us reverse the conditions and have a look. Suppose the company had ordered the union to dismiss certain men from their union, and the demand being refused, should institute a boycott against that union, publish its name in an "unfair list," instruct other manufacturers all over the United States not to buy the labor of that union, have committed call at stores and threaten to boycott if the merchants sold anything made by that union. Picket the factories where members work and slug them on the way home, blow up their houses and wreck the works, and even murder a few members of the union, and then demand that the courts should give the order to let the "unfair" list be kept, and the courts would order the company to cease boycotting and trying to ruin these union men. Suppose thereupon the company should sue the court and in open defiance continue the "unfair" list in a persistent, carefully laid out plan, purposely intended to ruin the union and force its members into poverty. What a howl would go up from the union demanding that the courts protect them and punish their law-breaking oppressors. Then they would praise the courts and go on earning a living protected from ruin and happy in the knowledge that the people's courts could defend them.

How could any of us receive protection from law-breakers unless the courts have power to do and punish such men. The court is placed in position where it must do one thing or the other—punish men who persist in defying its peace orders or go out of service, let anarchy reign and the more powerful destroy the weaker.

It is reasonable to expect the courts to defend their defenders, whereas thieves, forgers, burglars, crooks of all kinds and violent members of labor unions hate them and threaten violence if their members are punished for breaking the law. They want the courts to let them go free, and at the same time demand punishment for other men "outside de union" when they break the law. Notice the above reference is to "violent" members of labor unions. The great majority of the "unfair" union men are peaceable, upright citizens. The noisy, violent ones get into office, and the leaders of the great Labor

Trust know how to mass this kind of men in labor conventions and thus carry out the leaders' schemes, frequently abhorrent to the rank and file: so it was at the late Toronto Convention.

The paid delegates would applaud and "resolute" as Gompers wanted, but now insist on being heard, sometimes at the risk of their lives.

Delegate Egan is reported to have said at the Toronto convention: "If the officers of the Federation would only adhere to the law we would think a lot more of them."

The Grand Council of the Provincial Workmen's Ass'n of Canada has decided in favor of severing all connection with union in the U. S., saying "any union having its seat of Gov't in America, and pretending to be international in its scope, must fight industrial battles according to American methods. Said methods have consequences which are abhorrent to the law-abiding people of Canada, involving hunger, misery, riot, bloodshed and murder, all of which might be termed a result of the practical war now in progress in this fair province and directed by foreign emissaries of the United Miners of America."

That is an honest Canadian view of our infamous "Labor Trust."

A. King and Miss Mary Keller, of Northboro. The first of the middle parties, always a delightful feature of the season, was enjoyed during the week by Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashley Sparks, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Horton, of Williamsport; Mrs. Leonard Tufts, of Boston; Mrs. Herbert L. Johnson, of Worcester; Misses Harriet Horton, of Williamsport, and Lucy K. Priest, of New Castle; Spencer Waters and Wilbur C. Johnson, of New York; and Dr. Myron W. Marr, of Dorchester. Mrs. A. W. Hayford, of Upland Beach, chaperoned the younger set on a similar outing; Misses Blanche Tapley, Theodore and Margaret Clough, of Lynn; Ethel Check, of New York; Elizabeth Johnson, of Springfield, O.; T. J. Bishop, of Bridgeport; C. H. Banes, of Overbrook; Benjamin Thedy, Jr., of Pittsburgh; J. S. Walker, of Orange, Va.; H. S. Haskell, of New York; and Captain R. B. Parrott, of New Brunswick.

Wilmington Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILMINGTON, Va., January 1.—Miss Stacie Bell spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bell.

Miss Higgins is visiting friends and relatives at Lexington. The J. E. Hughes, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. G. W. Holland, near Kent's Store.

Mrs. C. B. Haden, of Palmyra, gave a very delightful entertainment to the young people on Friday night. Dancing was the chief amusement, and a large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Etchison, of Richmond, are guests of Mrs. William B. Hays, Jr., of New Castle.

Miss Lucy J. Jessor, of Cobham, spent the holidays with relatives at Palmyra. Arrived Shepherd, of the University of Virginia, is spending some time at his home, "Stoneleigh," New Castle.

Dr. Alfred Gray, of Richmond, is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. A. Gray. Misses Virginia and Mary Sadler, of Harrisonburg, are visiting relatives in the county.

Miss Ella Omohundro spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Omohundro.

Miss Ella Leftwich, of Charlottesville, recently visited her sister, Mrs. A. A. Gray.

Paul Pettit, of Petersburg, spent several days during the holidays at his home, "Glen Burnie."

Miss Nellie George, of Goldsboro, N. C., spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pettit, of Arvon.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Pettit, of Arvon, are guests at "Glen Burnie."

Grafton Goodwin, of V. P. L., was at home during the holidays.

Peyton Perkins, of Richmond, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Perkins.

W. G. Holman spent several days at his home at Bremo this week.

Mrs. Roy McSherry, of Montpelier, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Baker, of Kent's Store.

Miss Grace Whitten, of Fairfax, spent Christmas at her home near Palmyra.

Cleveland Sadler visited friends in Richmond this week.

Spent Christmas at her home near Palmyra.

Cleveland Sadler visited friends in Richmond this week.

Spent Christmas at her home near Palmyra.

Cleveland Sadler visited friends in Richmond this week.

THE WAITED-FOR EVENT OF THE YEAR—EXCEEDING ALL PAST RECORDS FOR VALUE GIVING.

THE WAITED-FOR EVENT OF THE YEAR—EXCEEDING ALL PAST RECORDS FOR VALUE GIVING.

OUR JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE OF Ladies', Misses' and Children's Outer Garments

Beginning To-Morrow, Monday Morning, January Third, Eight-Thirty.

$10.00 FOR SUITS FORMERLY UP TO $25.

Long Semi-Fitted, Plain Tailored Suits of worsted. Plain Tailored Coat Suits, semi-fitted, in all the latest and novel fabrics. Long Coat Suits of serge, shawl collar, lined with fine satin.

Mannish Long Coat Suits of wide waist serges. Smooth Finish Vested Long Coat Suits, in mannish styles. Collection of odd Suits, in diagonal, semi-fitted coat models.

$10.00 FOR COATS FORMERLY UP TO $17.50

Full Length Mixture Coats, in gray, green and Oxford tones. Full Length Black Broadcloth Coats, finely tailored and styled. Full Length Light Weight Warm Kersey Coats, stylishly made. Military Full Length Coats of fine broadcloth, velvet collar.

Big Reduction on Furs

Luxurious Fur Scarfs and Muffs. None reserved. Every Fur garment in stock greatly reduced to close out quickly.

$5.00 quality for $3.75 $10.00 quality for $7.50 $20.00 quality for $15.00 $40.00 quality for $30.00

And so on throughout the entire line. No carried over Furs, but all choice new Furs of this season's make.

JULIAN W. TYLER, 1st and Broad. F. L. MANDLOVE, Manager.

Reidsville Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

REIDSVILLE, N. C., January 1.—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barnes, of Atlanta, Ga., were guests this week of Mr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Purcell, of Salisbury, N. C., are visiting Mrs. Purcell's parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. I. Craig.

John R. Boyd, of Atlanta, Ga., is spending part of Christmas with his mother.

J. E. Lambeth, with his daughter, Miss Bessie, is visiting a sister of Mr. Lambeth in Columbia, S. C.

Dr. S. G. Jett has gone to Floyd, Va., to spend the holidays with Mrs. Jett, who has been absent for some time at the bedside of her father, Judge Howard, who is quite ill.

George W. Lemons, of Richmond, spent a few days of Christmas week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Lemons, near Reidsville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Motley, of Monticello, Ala., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carver and Miss Maude Satterfield, of Roxboro, N. C., are visitors at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Satterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hutcherson and children are attending a house party at the home of relatives in Danville, Va.

An enjoyable dance in the new "Fels building" was participated in last night by a large crowd of the young people of the town and its visitors.

South Boston Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., January 1.—Misses Mildred and Katherine Hafford have been visiting her friend, Miss Bessie Dunn, at this place, has returned home.

Elizabeth Green, of this place, left Monday for Annapolis, where she goes to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Yancey left to-day for an extended visit to relatives at West Tennessee and Northern Mississippi.

Chandler Sheard, of New York, is visiting his parents, at this place.

Mrs. B. S. Anderson, of Roanoke; Robert Noel, of Bedford City; Henry Robert and Charles Anderson, of Roanoke; and Miss Lena Hill, of Halifax, were guests of Mrs. A. W. Dunn this week.

REDUCTIONS REGARDLESS OF COST. NOTHING HELD BACK OR RESERVED.

OUR JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE OF Ladies', Misses' and Children's Outer Garments

Beginning To-Morrow, Monday Morning, January Third, Eight-Thirty.

$15.00 FOR SUITS FORMERLY UP TO $37.50

Wide Wale Cloth Suits, long coats, plain tailored, lined with fine satin. 48-Inch Coat Suits of wide wale serge, long midie rever. Fine Imported Broadcloth Suits, handsomely lined.

Chevron Diagonal Suits, in long coats, mannish models. Blue and Black Long Coat Suit, handsomely trimmed, made of fine imported fabrics.

$10.00 FOR DRESSES FORMERLY UP TO $25.

Dresses made of fine imported broadcloth. Dresses made of fancy worsteds. Dresses handsomely trimmed, made of fine serge. Dresses made of plain fancy weaves. Dresses of every description, heavily embroidered.

Big Reduction on Furs

Luxurious Fur Scarfs and Muffs. None reserved. Every Fur garment in stock greatly reduced to close out quickly.

$5.00 quality for $3.75 $10.00 quality for $7.50 $20.00 quality for $15.00 $40.00 quality for $30.00

And so on throughout the entire line. No carried over Furs, but all choice new Furs of this season's make.

JULIAN W. TYLER, 1st and Broad. F. L. MANDLOVE, Manager.

Reidsville Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

REIDSVILLE, N. C., January 1.—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barnes, of Atlanta, Ga., were guests this week of Mr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Purcell, of Salisbury, N. C., are visiting Mrs. Purcell's parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. I. Craig.

John R. Boyd, of Atlanta, Ga., is spending part of Christmas with his mother.

J. E. Lambeth, with his daughter, Miss Bessie, is visiting a sister of Mr. Lambeth in Columbia, S. C.

Dr. S. G. Jett has gone to Floyd, Va., to spend the holidays with Mrs. Jett, who has been absent for some time at the bedside of her father, Judge Howard, who is quite ill.

George W. Lemons, of Richmond, spent a few days of Christmas week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Lemons, near Reidsville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Motley, of Monticello, Ala., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carver and Miss Maude Satterfield, of Roxboro, N. C., are visitors at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Satterfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hutcherson and children are attending a house party at the home of relatives in Danville, Va.

An enjoyable dance in the new "Fels building" was participated in last night by a large crowd of the young people of the town and its visitors.

South Boston Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., January 1.—Misses Mildred and Katherine Hafford have been visiting her friend, Miss Bessie Dunn, at this place, has returned home.

Elizabeth Green, of this place, left Monday for Annapolis, where she goes to visit friends.

Mrs. Charles T. Yancey left to-day for an extended visit to relatives at West Tennessee and Northern Mississippi.

Chandler Sheard, of New York, is visiting his parents, at this place.

Mrs. B. S. Anderson, of Roanoke; Robert Noel, of Bedford City; Henry Robert and Charles Anderson, of Roanoke; and Miss Lena Hill, of Halifax, were guests of Mrs. A. W. Dunn this week.

Don't Weep at the Ice House.

Some people swell up on "emotion" brewed from absolute untruth. It's an old trick of the leaders of the Labor Trust to twist facts and make the "sympathetic ones" weep at the ice house. (That's part of the tale further on.)

Gompers et al. sneer at, spit upon and defy our courts, seeking sympathy by falsely telling the people the courts were trying to deprive them of free speech and free press.

Men can speak freely and print opinions freely in this country and no court will object, but they cannot be allowed to print matter as part of a criminal conspiracy to injure and ruin other citizens.

Gompers and his trust associates started out to ruin the Bucks Stove Co., drive its hundreds of workmen out of work and destroy the value of the plant without regard to the fact that hard-earned money of men who worked had been invested there.

The conspirators were told by the courts to stop these vicious "trust" methods (efforts to break the firm that won't come under trust rule), but instead of stopping they "dare" the courts to punish them, and demand new laws to protect them in such destructive and tyrannical acts as they may desire to do.

The reason Gompers and his band persisted in trying to ruin the Bucks Stove Works was because the statute which gave them the right to keep some old employees at work when "de union" ordered them discharged and some of "de gang" put in.

Now, let us reverse the conditions and have a look. Suppose the company had ordered the union to dismiss certain men from their union, and the demand being refused, should institute a boycott against that union, publish its name in an "unfair list," instruct other manufacturers all over the United States not to buy the labor of that union, have committed call at stores and threaten to boycott if the merchants sold anything made by that union. Picket the factories where members work and slug them on the way home, blow up their houses and wreck the works, and even murder a few members of the union, and then demand that the courts should give the order to let the "unfair" list be kept, and the courts would order the company to cease boycotting and trying to ruin these union men. Suppose thereupon the company should sue the court and in open defiance continue the "unfair" list in a persistent, carefully laid out plan, purposely intended to ruin the union and force its members into poverty. What a howl would go up from the union demanding that the courts protect them and punish their law-breaking oppressors. Then they would praise the courts and go on earning a living protected from ruin and happy in the knowledge that the people's courts could defend them.

How could any of us receive protection from law-breakers unless the courts have power to do and punish such men. The court is placed in position where it must do one thing or the other—punish men who persist in defying its peace orders or go out of service, let anarchy reign and the more powerful destroy the weaker.

It is reasonable to expect the courts to defend their defenders, whereas thieves, forgers, burglars, crooks of all kinds and violent members of labor unions hate them and threaten violence if their members are punished for breaking the law. They want the courts to let them go free, and at the same time demand punishment for other men "outside de union" when they break the law. Notice the above reference is to "violent" members of labor unions. The great majority of the "unfair" union men are peaceable, upright citizens. The noisy, violent ones get into office, and the leaders of the great Labor

Trust know how to mass this kind of men in labor conventions and thus carry out the leaders' schemes, frequently abhorrent to the rank and file: so it was at the late Toronto Convention.

The paid delegates would applaud and "resolute" as Gompers wanted, but now insist on being heard, sometimes at the risk of their lives.

Delegate Egan is reported to have said at the Toronto convention: "If the officers of the Federation would only adhere to the law we would think a lot more of them."

The Grand Council of the Provincial Workmen's Ass'n of Canada has decided in favor of severing all connection with union in the U. S., saying "any union having its seat of Gov't in America, and pretending to be international in its scope, must fight industrial battles according to American methods. Said methods have consequences which are abhorrent to the law-abiding people of Canada, involving hunger, misery, riot, bloodshed and murder, all of which might be termed a result of the practical war now in progress in this fair province and directed by foreign emissaries of the United Miners of America."

Trust know how to mass this kind of men in labor conventions and thus carry out the leaders' schemes, frequently abhorrent to the rank and file: so it was at the late Toronto Convention.

The paid delegates would applaud and "resolute" as Gompers wanted, but now insist on being heard, sometimes at the risk of their lives.

Delegate Egan is reported to have said at the Toronto convention: "If the officers of the Federation would only adhere to the law we would think a lot more of them."

The Grand Council of the Provincial Workmen's Ass'n of Canada has decided in favor of severing all connection with union in the U. S., saying "any union having its seat of Gov't in America, and pretending to be international in its scope, must fight industrial battles according to American methods. Said methods have consequences which are abhorrent to the law-abiding people of Canada, involving hunger, misery, riot, bloodshed and murder, all of which might be termed a result of the practical war now in progress in this fair province and directed by foreign emissaries of the United Miners of America."

That is an honest Canadian view of our infamous "Labor Trust."

A few days ago the daily papers printed the following:

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—Characterizing the attitude of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, in the contempt proceedings in the courts of the District of Columbia, in connection with the Bucks Stove and Range company as "a willful and defiant violation of the law," Simon Burns, general master workman of the general assembly, Knights of Labor, has voiced